The President shall preside at any meeting. In his or her absence, the Vice President shall preside. In the absence of the President and Vice President, the Secretary or Treasurer shall be elected by the other members of the Executive to preside. The quorum shall be four. When a meeting of the Board cannot be convened in time, the Executive may meet to consider urgent business. Any decision taken in such circumstances shall be subject to the subsequent approval of the Board.

GENERAL MEETINGS

28. (a) Subject to sub paragraph (b), the Association shall in each year hold a general meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year and shall specify the meetings as such in the notices calling it; and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Association and that of the next.

(b) So long as the Association holds its first Annual General Meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. Subject to Article 5, the Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and at such place as the Board shall appoint. Such Annual General Meeting shall be held normally in the month of May or June in each year (on a date published at least three months beforehand) to transact the following business:

(i) to consider for adoption the Report of the Board for the period since the previous Annual General Meeting;

(ii) to consider for adoption the Audited Statement of Accounts of the Association for the year to the previous 31st December. If the Audited Statement of Accounts are not complete a set of unaudited accounts will be presented. The adoption of the Audited Statement of Accounts will be deferred to the following Annual General Meeting or to an Extraordinary General Meeting called for this purpose;

(iii) to conduct elections in compliance with Article 9;

(iv) to record the names of the representatives designated by the Provincial Associations;

(v) to appoint a Registered Auditor to audit the Statement of Accounts of the Association;

(vi) to appoint, if necessary, Trustees for the purpose of paragraph 5(e) and (h) of the Memorandum of Association;

(vii) to receive reports from the Provincial Associations;

(viii) to transact any other business of which twenty eight days notice has been given to the Secretary.

- (c) In relation to the elections referred to in sub paragraph (b) (iii), nominations in writing, signed by a proposer and seconder, who must be members, and confirmed that the nominee is willing to act if elected, shall be given to the Secretary not less than seven days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting.
- (d) In relation to the designations referred to in sub paragraph (b) (iv), such designations shall be given to the Secretary not less than seven days prior to the Annual General Meeting and shall confirm that the nominees are willing to act.
- (e) An Extraordinary General meeting may be convened –
  - (i) at any time at the request of the Board; or
  - (ii) on the requisition at least one hundred individual or honorary members (in which case not more than twenty members from any one club and not more than 60 members resident in one Province shall count towards the minimum one hundred. The requisition must also be from the membership of at least 10 clubs); or
  - (iii) on the requisition of at least thirty clubs (in which case the committee of a club subscribing to the requisition shall have passed a resolution to that effect) for the transaction of any special business. The request of requisition shall specify the nature of the business to be transacted.
- (f) In the case of sub paragraphs (e) (ii) and (iii), the requisition shall have been proposed and seconded by individual or honorary members or clubs respectively. The President, Vice Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer shall arrange for the Extraordinary General Meeting to be held within thirty one days of the receipt of a request or requisition by the Secretary or, if that office is vacant, the President or Vice Presidents.
- (g) The quorum at the Annual General Meeting of the Association shall be fifteen members and the quorum at an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be thirty members. All members shall be entitled to attend and speak at General Meetings but voting shall be conducted in accordance with Article 41.

The President shall preside at a General Meeting. In his or her absence, either Vice President shall preside. In the absence of the President and Vice Presidents the members of the Board present shall elect one of their numbers to preside.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

29. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and also that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the reports of the Directors and Auditors, the election of Directors in the place of those retiring, the re-appointment of the retiring Auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.

30. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, four members present in person shall be a quorum.

31. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved: in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.

32. The Chairman, if any, of the Board of Directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

33. If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as Chairman or if no Director is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

34. The Chairman may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall, if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

35. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the results of the show of hands) demanded:-

(a) By the Chairman, or

(b) By two members present in person or by proxy at a general meeting of it shall be a quorum, or

(c) In the case of a single-member Company, one member of the company present in person or by proxy at a general meeting of it shall be a quorum, or

(d) By any member or members present in person and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all members having the right to vote at the meeting.

36. Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

37. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such a manner as the Chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded subject to Section 190.

38. Where there is an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

39. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman, or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other questions shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

40. Subject to Sections 193 to 195 of the Act, a resolution in writing signed by the members for the time being entitled to attend and vote on such resolution at a General Meeting (or being bodies corporate by their duly authorised representatives) shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as if the resolution had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held, and if described as a special resolution shall be deemed to be a special resolution within the meaning of the Act.

VOTING

41. (a) A vote may be taken upon any item of business to be transacted at a General Meeting. A vote shall be taken in respect of the special business to be transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting unless the proposal is withdrawn by the Board in the case of a request made under Article 28(e) (i) or by the proposer and seconder in the case of a requisition made under Article 28(e) (ii) or (iii).

- (b) All members except Juniors shall be entitled to vote at a General Meeting.
- (c) Each Club shall be entitled to nominate one of its members as a representative to attend and vote at a General Meeting. Notification of the name of that representative and of one alternative representative from the same Club entitled to vote in his or her absence shall be given in writing to the secretary (or, if that office is vacant, the President or Vice Presidents) not less than seven days prior to the date of the Meeting. If such written notification shall not have been given the only person entitled to vote on behalf of the Club at the General Meeting shall be the Club Secretary.
- (d) All members of the Board (in the case of an Annual General Meeting all members of the outgoing Board) shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting.
- (e) A person shall be entitled to vote in one capacity only at a General Meeting.
- (f) When a vote is taken upon any question put at a General Meeting it shall be recorded by the Secretary (or, if that office is vacant, by a member of the Board deputed by the President or Vice Presidents) upon a roll of members entitled to vote. In the event of a tie, the President or other member of the Board presiding in his or her absence shall have a casting vote.

42. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any Court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or in a poll, by his committee, receiver, guardian, or other person appointed by that Court, and any such committee, receiver, guardian, or other person may vote by proxy on a show of hands or on a poll.

43. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all moneys immediately payable by him to the Company have been paid.

44. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

45. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under that hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointer is a body corporate, either under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy need not be a member of the Company.

46. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the office or at such other place within the State as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of the poll, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

47. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances permit:-

48. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

49. A vote in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, if no intimation in writing of such death, insanity or revocation as aforesaid is received by the Company at the office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

50. Subject to Sections 181 of the Act an Annual General Meeting and a meeting called for by passing of a special resolution shall be called by 21 day's notice in writing at the least and a meeting of the Company (other than an Annual General Meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution) shall be called by 14 day's notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall specify the place, the day and the hour if meeting and in the case of special business and general nature of that business, and shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons as are under the Articles of the company entitled to receive notices from the company.

51. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of notices of a meeting by any person entitled to receive the notice shall not invalidate the proceeding at that meeting.

BODIES CORPORATE ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES AT MEETINGS

52. A body corporate which is a member of the Company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the body corporate which he represents as that body corporate could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company.

AUDIT & AUDIT EXEMPTION

53. Where appropriate auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with Section 333, Section 334 and Section 335 of the Act.

NOTICES

54. A notice may be given by the Company to any member either personally, by sending it by post to him/her registered address or by electronic means such as email or text. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected in the case of the notice of a meeting at the expiration of 24 hours after the letter containing the same is posted, and in any other case at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

55. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorised to:-

(a) every member

(b) every person being a personal representative or the Official Assignee in bankruptcy of a member where the member but for his death or bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting; and

(c) the Auditor (if any) for the time being of the Company.

No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

59. (a) Subscriptions payable by individual members shall be at the rate or rates determined by the Board.

(b) 10% of subscriptions received from individual members shall be invested in one or more reserve accounts which shall be maintained exclusively for that purpose. Interest earned on deposits in a financial year may be withdrawn to meet expenditure in that year but the principal and any interest previously earned and not withdrawn may only be withdrawn on the authority of a resolution passed at a General Meeting.

(c) Subscriptions payable by clubs shall be at the rate or rates determined by the Board in consultation with the Provincial Associations through their representatives on the Board and shall become due on 1 September and payable not later than 31 October. Subscriptions from clubs shall be payable to the Association by the individual clubs on behalf of their members. In the case of Ulster, subscriptions will be paid by the Provincial Association.

(d) The treasurer of each Provincial Association shall liaise with the Association not later than 30 November to determine the name and address of any club from which any subscription due was not received.

(e) The Board may impose such penalties or sanctions upon any defaulting Provincial Association, club or individual member as it may determine.

(g) Without prejudice to the generality of the power of the Board to impose penalties or sanctions, no club or individual member in default shall be entitled to play in any event which comes under the jurisdiction of the Association and shall not be able to exercise any other entitlement or facility available to members."

SPONSORSHIP

57. The approval of the Board is required before any sponsorship is accepted by a Provincial Association for a squash activity which is subject to the control of the Association and is to be held under its jurisdiction.

ALTERATION TO THE MEMORANDUM & ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

58. The Memorandum & Articles of Association may be amended and new Rules substituted at any General Meeting provided that no repeal, amendment or substitution shall be made unless adopted by not less than a two-thirds majority of members voting at any such General Meeting in accordance with Article 41 and that proper notice shall have been given of the nature of any proposed repeal, amendment or substitution.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

59. (A) Just Sport Ireland:

(a) Subject to all internal avenues of appeal having been exhausted, this Article shall apply to any dispute or difference arising out of, in connection with or under these Articles of Association or any rules, bye-laws, codes, policies or equivalent of the Association. This shall include without limitation any dispute arising out of, under or in connection with the legality of any decision made or procedure used by the Association or any part of it.

(b) Each such dispute or difference shall be referred to Just Sport Ireland (JSI) for final and binding arbitration by a single arbitrator in accordance with the JSI Arbitration Rules and in accordance with the Arbitration Act 2010 as amended.

(c) This Article shall also apply to every participant and member of every Unit (as defined below). Each such participant or member is bound to refer any dispute or difference which remains unresolved after all internal avenues of appeal have been exhausted to JSI arbitration in accordance with sub-article (b) above.

(d) The provisions of this Article shall apply notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary contained within these Articles of Association and/or any other rules, bye-laws, codes, policies or equivalent of the Association and/or any Unit from time to time. This Article applies notwithstanding the level within the Association that any such dispute or difference occurs in the first instance.

(e) The effect of this Article is to prohibit any party to such dispute or difference from commencing legal proceedings before the Courts.

(f) For the purpose of this Article, "Unit" means any team, association, club or committee or sub committee or other grouping, association or entity of any type which is in turn a member, part of, affiliated to or governed by the Association."

60. (B) that the following article be inserted as article 49 of the Articles of Association of the Company as a new article and that each subsequent article, and each reference to a subsequent article, in the Articles of Association of the Company be amended accordingly:

ANTI DOPING RULES:

61. (a) The anti-doping rules of IRISH SQUASH are the Irish Anti-Doping Rules as amended from time to time.
